

Teen Dream – Getting Young People (Teenagers) Reading through Libraries*15th February 2019 – Beeston Library – 1000 – 1600

An exciting day allowing people to exchange information about how to encourage teenagers in their leisure reading.

Covering FE colleges, schools and public libraries with a range of speakers talking about their projects and developments.

Costs will be kept as low as possible at around £30 per person.

Any queries contact Carol training@liem.org.uk

Outline Programme

- 09.30      Arrival and refreshments
- 10.00      Welcome and introductions
- 10.15      Session 1
- ‘The Bookpushers Project’ Cathy Petersen – Derbyshire County
- ‘The StorySmash Project’ James Hunter – Nottingham City
- 10.45      Discussion session 1 and feedback – what were the most valuable lessons/elements of these projects and how might you be able to use them?
- 11.15      Refreshments
- 11.45      Session 2
- ‘Zombie Apocalypse’ Amy McKay – Corby Business Academy
- ‘Raising Attainment in Reading’ Alison Edwards – Firth Park Academy
- ‘The Brilliant Book Award’ Rachel Marshall – Inspire SLS

- 12.30 Discussion session 2 and feedback - what were the most valuable lessons/elements of these projects and how might you be able to use them?
- 13.15 Lunch break (bring own lunch)
- 14.00 Session 3

'Reading Rangers and beyond' Lynn Goodman – Northampton College
- 14.15 Discussion session 3 and feedback
- 14.30 Workshop – 'using any of the information you have heard today create a plan for a project to be delivered
- 15.30 'Funding through the Arts Council' Peter Stones – Arts Council
- 16.00 Close